

Empathy... empathy... empathy...?

Dr. J. AL MUZZAMIL FAREEN

Assistant Professor, Dept. of English & Foreign Languages, SRM University, Kattankulathur, Tamilnadu India

In the very beginning
I thought that the whole world is very gentle and genuine.

But to my own dismay
I found it to be very inhuman and sly
If I am kind, they slash me
If I even tolerate all the differences
They crush me out of the venture.

The only thing that
I always wish is
To see a serene land
Of much promise and prosperity
Where all can really live
With sheer empathy and
Could really feel concern for one and all.
