Love a flame,
A fire in love,
Love on both sides,
Bothe sides burn in love,
Burning flames says love,
Love is burning,
Burning until it leads to ashes.
Love destroys self integrity,
Fire destroys the self,
And self integrates with the other self,
One self into other self
Two selves into one self
One self two selves
Two selves oneself
One self, half the other self
Other self other self
But one other makes another self.
Self burns,
Emotions burn,
And love ends in ashes of self.
