

GOOD MANNER

Dr. Sushil Kumar Mishra

Associate Professor & Former-Head, Department of English, SRM University, Sonapat,(Haryana) India

Good manner is one of the noblest qualities
Which prevents one from all disqualifies.

Good manner costs nothing but pays a lot
To get good wishes and blessings a lot.

It sweetens family & social relation
And proves boon to oneself and nation.

It glorifies the nation
And enriches the culture and tradition.

Good mannered person speaks politely to every one
Rudely to none.

Practises basic courtesy like 'sorry', 'thank you' and 'please' to everyone
Discourteous to none.

Good morning, excuse me and Hello
Are practised by that fellow.

Respectful to everyone
Disrespectful to none.

Sensitive to everyone
Insensitive to none.

Considerate to each one

Inconsiderate to none.

Kind and compassionate to every one

Unkind to none.

Listens to everyone carefully

And responding sincerely.

Waits for one's own turn

And then returns.

Pays compliment to everyone

Expecting return from none.

Helps ever

Hurts never.

Loves everyone

Hurts none

Smile ever

Sad never.