

SOUL

Dr. Sushil Kumar Mishra

Associate Professor & Former Head, Department of English, SRM University, Sonapat, (Haryana), India

Blessed is the soul
Existing like north pole.

Form of God
And supreme lord.

Dominates all beings
And belongs to all living beings.

Remains forever
Dies never.

Remains unhurt
And unbent.

Ever Imperishable
And indefinable.

Ever eternal
And immortal.

Neither takes birth
Nor dies.

Exists unborn

And unknown.

Neither killed

Nor shielded.

Remains unconquerable

And indestructible.

Ever omnipresent

And omnipotent.

Shines like star

And dwells apart.

Exists immovable

And everlasting.

Casting off worn- out bodies

Enters into new bodies.

Just as human beings put off old dress

And put on new dress.

Neither burnt by fire

Nor cut by weapons.

Neither dried by air

Nor wet by water.

Remains fair

Clean and just ever.
