It's a part to play
An opportunity or care May be a sudden change or fear
May be a life or death to cheer
A strong sense of unease
dear Believe you have, built it well
A shaky smile may be of Wellbeing you get Gratified life with Grinning, grin....
Dare you waste it for fleeting joys
Live it for felicity....
You will never know the Mishap happen
Be ready to face it well...
At sunrise count the colours
Not the time
At sunsets count the blessings and not the sins
So you play your part.....
