Dr. Sushil Kumar Mishra

This is my prayer to thee, O! Maa Kali!

Give me the strength to bow down my head at thy feet till last breath.

Give me the strength to remain equal in both pleasure and displeasure.

Give me the strength to respect seniors as my own parents.

Give me the strength to be contented with what I have.

Give me the strength to perform my duty assigned by thee honestly and sincerely.

Give me the strength to love birds, beast and human beings equally.

Give me the strength to serve all creatures great and small equally.

Give me the strength to be positive in adverse and difficult situation.

Give me the strength to trust thee like mother for many births.

Let this relation of mother and son should be continued birth after birth.

Give me the strength to help others with words, mind and deeds.

Give me the strength to be kind and compassionate to the poor and needy people.

Give me the strength to help ever, hurt never.

Give me the strength to raise my mind high above daily problems and trifles.

Give me the strength to surrender my children, property and my life to thy will with love.
