The war in mind by fate or else?

Cutting and stabbing soul but happy breeze

Man on dying bed laughs at life tale

Spurting out red rose blood, death more ease,

I possessed all, yet world around is sad

Several thorns in the way of life lawn

Killing secrets hid in mind, so it's glad

The loved one died, memories remained to mourn.,

Now raped painful heart is harsh in heart

Lifelong sorrows, a little joy is reoccurred chain

Little joy with you was thousands times smart

I excuse you for incredible, hurting lies rain,

I loved and is a crime probably,

Hell in paradise I found, I loved heartily.
