Marriage! Marriage! The matching of true minds
And bondage of two minds.

A Sacred union of two souls
Through which they reach their goals.

This relation is not the decision of this birth
But pre-decided according to deeds of previous birth.

Hints for wiving
And thriving.

Starts with physical love
Turns into spiritual love.

Leads one towards positivity
Prevents from negativity.

Directs one not only to earn money
But also to struggle and be ready for long journey.

Opens the eyes
To be tolerant, polite and affable in marital ties.

Makes them to realise each other peacefully.
And live blissfully.

Motivates them to be Mr and mistress in young age
Companions for middle age and nurses in old age.

Inspires them to share their problems with mutual understanding
In order to pass happy and peaceful marital life without misunderstanding.

Marriage may have pain
But celibacy has no pleasure at all.
