Oh! Hope help me on that way
As shining suns bright ray
To make my future bright
Strengthen me and give foreseeing sight.
Where are you standing?
So far from my chanting
I don't know what for this shouting
Tell me why I'm suffering.
Before breaking of my heart
You were companion as my part
With you i never fought
Still you gave me black spot.
Where is your godly kindness?
I am alive without calmness
Still demand which i possessed
I'll give up as you suggest.
O, crude hope of mind and butcher for kind
Rend me but don't touch my heart,
And memories of mind.
